

VICAR

St. Mary's, Ecclesfield

St. Mary's is a medieval church with a young and enthusiastic heart.

We seek:

- An experienced priest, with the energy and enthusiasm to take on a busy and responsible role
- A person with an outgoing personality who is a good communicator, willing to lead and to teach
- Someone willing to embrace a breadth of worship and music including Common Worship, BCP, choir, organ and music group
- A person enthusiastic about working with the whole village including non church members, especially young people and young families
- A priest willing to work with neighbouring parishes

The PCC, as patron, invite applications – a well maintained 4 bedroom vicarage is provided.
